Dear Sister Mary Elizabeth:

Your letter of 13 August 1973, addressed to the Publications Department of this Agency, has been referred to me for reply.

The general reference maps you refer to are available on sale from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402. About 35 maps are presently in stock, (see enclosed list), their price ranging generally from 35¢-75¢. You may also be interested in our People's Republic of China: Atlas, November 1971, which is available at $5.25 per copy from the Public Documents Distribution Center, Pueblo Industrial Park, Pueblo, Colorado, 81001.

I enclose three pamphlets and a reprint which discuss the purpose and function of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Yours sincerely,

STATINTL

Acting Director
Basic and Geographic Intelligence
